THE NEWARK ADVOCATE

NEWARK, OHIO, SATURDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 8, 1919

The Opening Chapter of "Married Strangers" appears in the Advocate on Monday, Nov. 17th.

TEN CENTS A WEEK

HUNDREDS OF REDS FACE DEPORTATION

JUDGE DIRECTS MINERS' OFFICERS TO RECALL STRIKE ORDER

SAY DRY AMENDMENT IS SAFE

OFFICIALS ARE GIVEN UNTIL 6 P.M. TUESDAY TO END COAL STRIKE

COURT HOLDS LEVER LAW IS VIOLATED IF TWO OR MORE AGREE TO QUIT WORK IN MINES.

UNION CONTENTION THAT END OF WAR MADE LAW INEFFECTIVE, NOT UPHELD

Government Attorneys Claimed Stoppage of Coal Production Would Increase Amount to Be Paid to Railroads Under Government Control Act.

Indianapolis, Nov. 8.—The United Mine Workers of America were today ordered to withdraw the strike order under which 400,000 men quit work November 1. The mandate was issued by Judge A. B. Anderson of the United States district court after a hearing in which the Union attorneys fought vainly for a chance to present arguments on the right to strike.

The union was given until November 11 at six p.m. to issue the cancellation. This date was selected because so many defendants were absent. The union attorneys explained the absences must be summoned by telegraph from many parts of the country to issue the cancellation order.

ARREST I. W. W. LEADER AT LAWRENCE, MASS.

Lawrence, Mass., Nov. 7.—Irene Kaplan, leader of the last textile strike here, was arrested today after the police had been informed by young boys found distributing revolutionary handbills on the streets that Kaplan had employed them. He was charged with violating the city ordinances.

The hand bills were signed "Local Lawrence, Communist Party of America" and urged the "workers of the world to unite," with the association, "you have nothing to lose but your chains."

The circular refers to the second anniversary of the Russian revolution and urges the workers of Lawrence to show their solidarity with the workers of Russia by wearing the red emblem of the soviet government.

PLANS WERE MADE SEVERAL WEEKS AGO

Washington, Nov. 8.—The department of justice today checked up on reports from its agents in the more than a dozen cities throughout the country in which federal officers last night raided radical headquarters and arrested members of the syndicate organizations.

Officials however, were without detailed information as to success of their plans formulated several weeks ago to deal strongly with the radicals on the eve of their expected celebration of the anniversary of the establishment of the Russian Soviet government.

William J. Flynn, head of the department's division of investigation, directed the raids from New York and it was said that many of the officers would report direct to him there.

WORLD'S LARGEST MINE BURNING; MEN SAVED

Bicknell, Ind., Nov. 8.—American number one mine, said to be the largest bituminous mine in the world, which was discovered on fire last night had been completely sealed today after workmen had toiled frantically practically all night. Because of the size of the mine and the valuable machinery it contained, the fire is said to be one of the most disastrous in the country. Only 21 men including pumpers and engineers, were employed when the fire was discovered and these were rescued.

RITCHIE ELECTED BY LESS THAN 200 VOTES

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 8.—Albert C. Ritchie, Democratic candidate for governor, led Harry W. Nice, Republican, by less than 200 votes according to the official and unofficial returns of last Tuesday's election when the election supervisors of Baltimore resumed their canvass of the city wards today.

MARNE BATTLE WAS BLOODIEST OF WAR.

Paris, Nov. 8.—The bloodiest battle of the great war was the battle of the Marne. Official figures just compiled show the losses were:

Dead, 320,000; wounded, 400,000; total, 720,000.

This means that this one battle cost nearly three-quarters of a million men out of the fighting. The figures include, of course, the losses on both sides.

FEDERAL DRY ACT HAS 859 MAJORITY ON LATE RETURNS

Only Big Gains By Wets on Official Count Will Change Result.

LIQUOR INTERESTS STILL CLAIM PROPOSAL IS BEATEN

Official Count Will Be Made To Determine Result of Vote.

Columbus, Nov. 8.—Complete returns from all but two precincts in the state, including official returns from 85 of the 88 counties, tabulated at 1:30 o'clock in the office of the secretary of state gave the drys a majority of 1480 votes in favor of ratification of federal prohibition. The vote stood:

For ratification, 499,776.

Against, 498,296.

Columbus, Nov. 8.—Complete official returns from 73 of the 88 counties and complete unofficial returns from the remaining 15 counties, with the exception of seven missing returns, in two dry counties, as certified shortly before noon today, in the office of secretary of state gave the drys a majority of 859 in favor of ratification of the federal prohibition amendment.

Dry gains in the official count in other counties reported to the secretary of state's office by telephone from the election boards but which are not included in secretary's tabulations are expected to increase this dry majority.

The official count in Muskingum county was said to give the drys a gain of 182, but partially offsetting this was a wet gain of 165 in the official count of Franklin county, leaving a net gain for the drys in those two counties of 77. This added to the already reported dry majority of 859 would give the drys apparent majority of 936.

Based upon the average dry majority given by the precincts reporting from Logan and Mercer county, the missing five precincts in Logan county should give the drys an additional gain of 255 votes and the two missing precincts in Mercer county an additional 31, which would further swell the dry majority to 1,222.

"The government contends that this strike is illegal in that it violates the federal fuel control act," he said.

Judge Ames cited the provisions of the law forbidding restriction of fuel output and concluded:

The proceedings opened promptly at 10 o'clock.

"Your honor," said Henry Warrum, of counsel for the defense, the defendants wish to move at this time for a postponement of these proceedings for a week or ten days. In the meantime it is hoped that a peaceful settlement of the controversy on which these proceedings are based may be reached."

"The questions involved are too important to admit of delay," rejoined C. E. Ames, assistant attorney general. "For this reason the government objects to delay."

Judge Anderson indicated he would issue the injunction asked by the government when he held earlier in the day that miners and their agents are guilty of conspiracy under the Lever act if two or more agree to quit work in coal mines.

The attorneys announced that President Lewis and Secretary Green of the union purposed obeying the court order but that they could not speak for their fellow officials.

The American Mine Workers of America through their attorney, Henry Warrum, asked at the opening of the United States district court today that the proceedings be postponed a week or ten days in the hope that meanwhile the strike might be settled. The government through C. E. Ames, assistant attorney general, objected and the court thereupon took upon the motion to dismiss the injunction. The government position was that the case was too important to admit delay.

Butter and egg prices remain the same today on the local markets as last week, butter being 70 cents a pound and eggs 68 and 70 cents. The butter supply is increasing by a few pounds at each stand each week but eggs are very scarce.

The market was well stocked with fine large chickens and they were picked very soon and brought from $1 to $2.

Bogian hares were selling for from 75 cents to $1.75.

New tomatoes are higher today. Last week they were 15 and 20 cents a pound and today they are 20 and 25 cents.

Grape fruit are 2 for 15 cents and the larger ones are 25 cents each.

Green beans, lima beans, corn on the cob, plums and peaches have disappeared from the markets.

Prices of vegetables and fruits are:

Potatoes, bunch, 5c.

Cauliflower, 5 to 25c each.

Cabbage, lb., 3 to 4c.

Carrots (new) basket, 10c.

do, bunch, 5c.

Celery, bunch, 10c.

Cucumbers, 2 for 5c; 5, 10, 15c apiece.

Eggplant, 10c/25c.

Onions, 5, 8 and 10c.

Lettuce (head), 10, 15 and 20c.

do (leaf), lb., 15c.

GERMANS IN U. S. PLAN CLASS WAR

New York Police Find Literature Outlining Plan For 'Der Klass-Enkampf', German I. W. W.

New York, Nov. 8.—Country wide attempts to organize German branches of the Industrial Workers of the World were disclosed by the police late yesterday.

Thousands of circulars have been distributed from Chicago to I. W. W. branches, announcing that a representative will start operations in New York November 20 and work west, fully equipped with literature and application blanks in the interest of the proposed German branches. Meeting will be held wherever possible, the circular announced.

The New York police said that all such meetings here would be watched and that arrests would be made if any law was violated.

The police have obtained a copy of the circular. It is headed "The Klassenkampf" (the class war) and the text is in English. It announced that Der Klassenkampf, a new German I. W. W. paper appears twice a month but would be published weekly beginning November 20. The appeal to "yellow workers" continues.

"At the present time we are busily engaged in getting out literature of every description and as soon as sufficient amount is on hand we will send out an organizer to work all states east of Chicago in the interests of Der Klassenkampf and the I. W. W."

We are quite certain with your assistance and that of all other German fellow workers this tour will prove successful. The sentiments of the wage slaves at the present time is such that we can not delay a minute longer but must continue with this work.

"We are quite confident that it will result in our gaining many thousands of subscribers as well as a large number of I. W. W. W."

The circular is signed:

"Yours for industrial freedom, the press committee Der Klassenkampf German propaganda branch, I. W. W."

EMPLOYERS AND WORKERS RAPPED IN PROBE REPORT

Senate Committee Brands All Strikes as Industrial Barbarism.

CONGRESS MUST PROVIDE AGENCY TO END DISPUTES

Declares Public Has Right to Demand Concessions From Capital.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Characterizing all strikes as "industrial barbarism" and declaring that "there is no place in this country either for industrial despotism or labor despotism," the senate committee authorized to investigate the steel strike today presented a report covering the findings both in Washington and in Pittsburgh and criticizing both the workers and the employers in the controversy which resulted in at least partial disruption of the steel industry.

The committee's main conclusion, concurred in by all members, was expressed in the statement that "the public has a right to demand that capital shall not arrogate to itself the right to determine in its own way those industrial questions, and it is the same as to labor, and the duty is upon congress to provide some way of adjusting these difficulties."

As for permanent preventative of strikes, which the committee advocated as apparently the only way for labor to secure even its just demands if employers refuse to grant them, it is recommended that congress authorizes the establishment of some such mediation agency with well defined powers as the recently dissolved war labor board.

This board would have the power of compulsory investigation, the board adds on this subject, but "not to the extent of compulsory arbitration." A final decision of the board would be endorsed by the public. There is good reason enough in the American people to bring about an adjustment of these difficulties."

Committee members who conducted the investigation were fairly unanimous on the report, though leaving open points on which they could not agree. The report was signed by Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, chairman and Senators Sterling, South Dakota, Phineas, Colorado, Republicans, and McCall, Tennessee, and Walsh, Massachusetts, Democrats.

Treatment of the causes of the strike, the committee in its report expressed the opinion that the walkout was precipitated by the determination of the American Federation of Labor to organize the steel industry. Wages are

MAY VOTE TODAY ON RESERVATIONS

Expect Little Argument In Senate on Committee Proposal on Paris Peace Treaty.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The first of the foreign relations committee reservations to the peace treaty was before the senate today and a vote without prolonged discussion was expected. Should the senate dispose of the first reservation before adjournment, consideration of the second reservation which deals with Article 10 of the treaty will begin.

You can't make any storage battery last forever—that's a fact.

You've got to keep it filled with water and test it, just like a tire has to be kept filled with air, or it will cost you money.

Some day—if you have an ordinary battery—it's sure to have to be re-insulated, no matter who made it.

But—if you'll buy a Willard Battery with Threaded Rubber Insulation, you'll get clear away from the biggest cause of battery troubles. The insulation will probably last as long as the plates.

Drop in and ask us any question you can think of. We're here to give you the kind of help, service and advice that make friends.

FEDERAL AGENTS

(Continued From Page 1) to have made 31 arrests in raids on alleged radicals throughout the city last night declined today to give out any information regarding their activities. It is known that a number of prisoners are held in the county jail but the officials in charge would not divulge the charges on which they are held or the number taken, saying that they had "strict instructions" from Washington to maintain silence for the present.

In a raid in an alleged anarchist meeting here several weeks ago federal officers arrested 100 Russians, nearly all of whom were subsequently released.

FEDERAL DRY ACT

(Continued From Page 1) from 68 counties and unofficial from the remaining 19 counties show the ratification amendment to have been defeated. No figures were given out. L. H. Gibson, manager of the Ohio Home Rule Association, who is watching the returns as they come to the secretary of state admitted today that the result is close and that it will take the official count to decide the issue. He said he still hoped that the trial result will show the amendment to have been defeated.

Headquarters of the Ohio Dry Federation has abandoned their own figures and now are relying only on the official returns as they are reported to the secretary of state. James A. White, manager, though admitting the result dangerously close predicts the amendment carried by a safe majority.

It is not expected that the official vote will be announced by the secretary of state for at least a week or ten days. No official word at noon today and no more tabulations of results will be made until Monday. Even after county election boards have submitted their official returns. Chief Statistician Johnson says he personally will canvass the vote in every precinct and make his own tabulations therefrom in order to obtain the official results. There are 5882 precincts in the state and this minute canvass will take a week or ten days, he says.

GRANVILLE PLANS CELEBRATION ON ARMISTICE DAY

Parade and Patriotic Program Will Mark First Anniversary of Close of World War.

(Special to the Advocate.)
Granville, Nov. 8.—Citizens and business men of Granville have been requested to hang out flags and to display service flags Tuesday, Armistice Day. The event will be celebrated by a parade at 3 o'clock announced by the ringing of bells and a patriotic program at 3:30 in front of the opera house, "brief but snappy" consisting of a prayer by Rev. Emanuel Breeze, a "community sing led by the Denison quartet," a service by Mrs. C. P. Cooper, benediction pronounced by Rev. F. G. Bowden, and a closing number by the Denison band. Details are being worked out by a committee of men appointed by the executive board of the Red Cross which met Friday. The bells will ring at 3 o'clock when the procession is to form and men, women and children will hasten to the public square to renew their remembrance of the most important event in history. The people will unite with the leaders in singing "America," "Forward Chris-tians," "Soldiers," and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

At 2 o'clock of that afternoon the Granville War Mothers have arranged a program for the community federation to be held in their rooms in place of the regular business meeting of the federation, to which every woman in town and township is cordially invited. There will be an address by Rev. E. Breeze and talks by Dr. J. W. Rohrer, president of Schools, and Superintendent of Schools, B. Conklin, on matters of interest to the entire community. The meeting will adjourn in time for the celebration on the square.

At a meeting of the executive board of the Red Cross held Friday forenoon, the secretary Mrs. T. S. Johnson reported satisfactory progress and the present financial status of the unit. The Red Cross, public health nurse, Miss Wilkinson presented a full report of her work in hospitals and stated that with the approval of Dr. Lovins and Dr. Thompson, there is a daily clinic at Red Cross headquarters, which needs a new oven burner hot plate and a bath tub to make the equipment quite adequate. The children are responding readily to the new regime and their mothers are learning that the nurse's interest in the children's diet proceeds from her desire to secure the proper nourishment for each child. The system of weights and measures has been established in the public schools to which the Mothers club has contributed the scales. The secretary, diet and the hospital cot were contributed to headquarters by Mrs. J. S. Jones and the King's Daughters are furnishing the loan closet. The chairman, Mrs. Ray conducted the business session and asked for co-operation in the celebration of armistice day. A committee of men with Prof. W. A. Chamberlain at the head was appointed to arrange details for a band and brief program.

Miss Ostrom, sorority numbering 12 active members, were at home to their friends Friday afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Theodore Johnson. Guests were met at the door by Miss Elizabeth Evans, and welcomed by Miss Margaret Seasholes and by each girl of the sorority in turn. In the dining room at a table decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums, Mrs. Roe Morrow and Mrs. R. C. Sole, president and a group of girls passed around a collection box. Miss Ellen Bennehoff of Anderson, Indiana, a conservatory graduate of last June, presided at the piano, giving several charming solos, and accompanying Miss Ruby Barnes, who sang a group of songs in brilliant style. The singing of sorority songs was also a feature of the brief but delightful program.

The women's missionary organization which met Friday afternoon in the social room of the Baptist church presented under its banner in the form of a little Americanization play titled: "The Happiest Plan" given by a group of Sherdison college girls.

The play as presented was a clever bit of acting and the lesson conveyed struck home to each heart. The cast consisted of Miss Elvira Morris, Miss Josephine Darrow, Miss Ethel Bogardus, Miss "Sunny" Miller and Miss Mildred West, directed by Miss Louise Hamblen and Miss Dorothy Leslie.

Rev. and Mrs. T. P. Chambers went to Columbus today where Mr. Chambers attended the meeting of secretaries of the Ohio Baptist convention.

Mrs. Hattie Otis of Fort Morgan, Colorado, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Howe, left yesterday for Hicksville, enroute for their home.

Dr. E. W. Chub, dean of Ohio university, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Hundley in East Broadway.

Mrs. R. J. Sims of Cleveland is visiting at the home of her brother C. J. Wright in Centerville street. Mary Katherine Ricketts and Master John Ricketts of Columbus are also guests of the Wright family.

Miss Mary Frances Denman was invited by a dozen of her academy classmates on a motor trip to Columbus today, escorted by big uncle, Clifford Lewis, to witness the football game between Denman Academy and the D. and D. team of Columbus.

Several Granville friends five received cards from Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Wyeth of Newark announcing the marriage of their daughter, Carol Ferne to Mr. Benjamin Horton Buxton of Granville, on Monday, November 4th. The couple will be at home after November 8th at 330 Livingston Avenue Columbus.

A large audience greeted Miss Noble at the Presbyterian church last night. Miss Noble not only fulfilled but exceeded all expectations. She was a distinct success in child director. A beautiful duet was rendered by Mrs. Rohrer and Mrs. Carrie Jones. The rest of the music was furnished by the Commons Club orchestra. This is the first appearance of this orchestra in public and it was a great pleasure to hear it.

BEST WELL IN DISTRICT SHOWS 250-BBL. FLOW

Ohio Cities Gas Brings In Fine Producer on A. B. Crawford Farm Near Perryton.

A 250-barrel oil well was brought in yesterday by the Ohio Cities Gas company on the A. B. Crawford farm near Perryton. The well is said to be the best which has yet been struck in that vicinity. It was drilled to a depth of 3,100 feet and into the sand for a depth of 32 feet. On Thursday a head of 300 barrel of oil in the pipes before it started to flow. "There are two smaller producers on the opposite end of the farm of 5-6 acres."

"The well will not be shot until Monday as it is necessary to erect oil tanks first and workers are now engaged in building two one hundred barrel tanks and one two hundred and fifty barrel tank. The bringing in of the Crawford No. 3 demonstrates that the drillers are getting into the vein and oil men predict that several gushers will yet be struck in the Perryton belt."

CANNED GOODS SOLD QUICKLY BY FIREMEN

A rush of buyers greeted the municipal markets when the sale opened at 9 o'clock this morning in the various fire stations over the city. A car load of vegetables, consisting of 120 cases of canned peas, corn and beans was disposed of by noon with the exception of about 18 cases at the Central station. Buyers were limited to a case each and they were taken away in all sorts of conveyances. The line up for broken cases at Central department started to form at 8 o'clock and by 9 o'clock there were nearly 150 purchasers in line. As one of the salesmen remarked "the goods went like hot cakes." Mayor Atherton will endeavor to secure another car as soon as possible. The receipts today amounted to about $3,024. The vegetables sold at $2.50 per case or 10½ cents per can.

JOHNSTONS HAVE FAST SEA TRIP ON DESTROYER

U. S. Torpedo Boat Carries Newark Man and Wife 360 Miles In Ten Hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Johnson are now in Constantinople, Turkey, where they will be stationed for some time before proceeding to India. In the following letter the former Newark Y. M. C. A. secretary tells of a record-breaking trip he made from Smyrna to Constantinople in which four thousand dollars of oil were used during each hour of the ten hours trip of 360 miles. The letter dated September 21, follows:

"This is Sunday evening, my second day in this city. Mrs. Johnson and I are at present sitting in our room at the hotel looking down upon a pretty little park and refreshment garden where a fine band is playing and where the people are gathered together about as they are in Newark's streets on show day. The band has just stopped playing and it got a rousing cheer and has started up again. We are up about six stories and can look out across the Golden Horn to (Stamboul) the south and most Turkish part of the city. The sky is black with what we would call rain clouds at home. We are in Para, the European part of the city. The American embassy building is just down the road.

We left Paris on the 5th, reached Naples on the 8th, left there on the 10th by boat, arrived at Smyrna in Asia Minor on the 17th, after stops which allowed us to go ashore at a number of places, Messina, Catone, Patras and Poisevs, (Athens). When we reached Smyrna we saw an American destroyer at anchor, the second ship from ours. I got the ship's megaphone and called across to the boys and they asked us to come to the shore and they would row us out to their boat. They had a small boat, fished off the boat and then went over. The boys showed them about the boat and incidentally told them that they were going to Constantinople the next day on a record run—full speed—and that we might get a chance to ride with them. That evening I went to see the commander who said it would be all right if I got permission from Admiral Bristol's ship captain, which stood a little way off. Next I went to the admiral's ship and put my request in writing and it was granted. We then had "one ride." We left Smyrna at 10 a.m. Friday, September 18th on the destroyer Cole, which just came from the yards in June. It carries 12 torpedoes (four triple tubes), four 4-inch guns and two 3-inch guns, has the finest wireless telegraph and telephone outfit one could imagine, burns about 4,000 gallons of oil per hour when making 35 knots per hour. We made the trip (360 miles) in ten hours. It went as fast as 37 knots per hour at times. It was a beautiful day and much of the time we could sit out on the rear deck behind the turrets and enjoy a beautiful sea breeze and view. It seemed that it plowed a trough in the sea. As we sat on the back deck, the surface of the water seemed to be on the level with our faces. There were eight of us on the boat and we had the treat of our lives. We are wishing now that it may be our luck to get out to India again when we see it in that direction after the first of the year."

"As I told you in another letter, I am to have charge of the work for our sailor lads here. Last night we attended a dance given by the boys of the Galveston, the American station ship here at present. They seemed to have a good time. We had about twenty-five nice young ladies from the schools and welfare organizations here to assist in the entertainment of the boys. To the sailors, Mrs. Johnson and I have been in learning something about the city. We went into the St. Sophia mosque, where we had to put slippers over our shoes to protect the carpets. It looks like a very interesting city, and I know I will enjoy my stay here. We have much difficulty in getting buildings for our work or for living quarters. The city is so full of French and English soldiers who have control of things here. At Smyrna the Greeks and Italians have control. The English soldiers are very friendly and help us in many ways. They are here to do their job. While at Smyrna I heard Admiral Bristol, our high commissioner, or cut here, make a speech in our Y.M.C.A. just started here.

"There seems to be lots of good food in Constantinople, much fruit, melons, &c. Today I was over at the American Mission Bible house at noon. Mrs. Johnson our hosts (2), and two of our sailor boys. We went out to a restaurant and had our dinner sent in to us. We ate it on the floor. The Turks took over the building during the war so furniture is short. It costs 5.50 Turkish pounds worth $1.25 each. It was very modest, too. So you see how things cost. Higher here than in Paris, Rome or Naples or Smyrna. When peace is settled I suppose things will change some."

ATTENDANCE IS GOOD FOR MONTH

Record of 95 Per Cent Maintained Though Rain Fell
Nearly Every Day—
Schools Hold Socials.

Though rain fell on all but three school days last month the Newark schools maintained an attendance record of 95 per cent and there were but 50 cases of tardiness during the month. No comparison of figures can be made with last year, Superintendent Barnes pointed out because the schools were closed last October because of the flu epidemic.

The reports show that the teachers made 114 visits to the homes of children, 139 visits from parents, 230 other visitors, 83 visits by the Superintendent of Schools, and 450 visits by the various principals of the buildings," says Superintendent Barnes' report.

"The schools are very grateful for the generosity of A. H. Heisey in presenting to each building in the city a very fine portrait of Theodore Roosevelt. These pictures are to be framed and hung in a conspicuous place in each building.

"During the month the following schools held socials: Woodside, North Fourth, Conrad, Maholm, Cherry Valley. The total amount of money cleared at all of these socials amounted to $750. Woodside leads the other schools in the amount cleared which was $224. This money is to be used for the purchase of various things that the schools need.

"Thanksgiving comes during this month and the schools will be asked to make their annual offering for the benefit of the poor children in the city. There is no collection taken in the schools that is more important than this one since every cent contributed to this fund goes to our own children and since there are a great many children that could not attend school unless they were provided with proper clothing. The contribution last year was $425. Let us make it more this year."

The attendance figures follow:

THIS ELECTION WAS WON BY FRACTION

Columbus, Nov. 8.—Secretary of State Smith was asked to give an opinion on what was probably the closest election contest in Ohio Tuesday. Voters of Bucyrus voted on the question of purchasing for the city the local water works system from Bucyrus Development company. The result was 1382 for and 689 against. A two-thirds majority was required. Statisticians in the secretary of state offices decided the question had carried by one and one-third votes.

Tested 250,000 Miles
Three-Point Cantilever Springs
Greatest Improvement Since Pneumatic Tires

OVERLAND 4 has been put through the most thorough and severe test possible. 250,000 miles of mountain trails, desert sand, heat, cold, mud and dust, demonstrated the quality of every part of the car long before we began manufacturing.

This remarkable test showed conclusively that Three-Point Cantilever Springs, exclusive with Overland, are the greatest improvement in riding comfort since the introduction of pneumatic tires.

They protect the car from road shocks and prolong the life of every part.

They enable the wheels to hold better to the road. They give greater comfort under all road conditions.

They do away almost entirely with side sway and rebound which twist and rack the car.

Diagonal attachment of the Three-Point Springs at both ends of a 130-inch Spring-base gives the steadiness and smooth riding of the heavy car of long wheelbase.

Equipment is complete from Auto-Lite Starting and Lighting System to Marshall Divan Spring Upholstery.

INCOMPETENT OPERATORS.

In a considerable number of states, the individual operator is not required to take out any license. Registration of the car is all that is necessary. In many states the operator has to apply for a license, but the privilege is granted to almost anyone. In some states public sentiment demands not merely that each operator be licensed, but that they all pass an examination and show real competence.

Theoretically, the last named method is correct. People ought not to be let loose on the highway to manage a powerful and dangerous vehicle like an automobile, unless they understand how to handle it, or unless while learning they are accompanied by a competent driver.

The trouble with the licensing system is that the majority of accidents are caused not by inexpert beginners, but by competent drivers who have a disposition to take chances. These operators could easily pass any kind of an examination. But no examining board could guarantee that they would use caution.

The licensing system is very useful to this extent, that it preserves a record of the individual operator. The fact that an operator's license may be revoked or suspended if he does not use care, is a great check to him. Many people believe that these suspensions should occur much more frequently than they do. A state that does not require the individual operator to be licensed, can of course reach somewhat the same result by suspending the license of the car.

So many people are driving cars who are either unable or unwilling to operate them according to law, that public sentiment is likely to demand stricter laws and enforcement of them. The need for this will increase as automobiles become still more common.

NEXT SUGAR CROP.

The shortage of sugar will have to be endured until the next crop comes in. The main thing now is to see that the scant supply is fairly distributed, and that the United States gets its share of the next crop. This country will need more sugar than formerly.

There is more interest in preserving foods, and to save supplies that go to waste a great deal of sugar is needed. Then the people who used to resort to the saloons are now patronizing soft drink and ice cream places. This is a natural substitute.

The United States should not be hoggish about sugar. But if the people of Europe will go to work, they should be able to produce most of their own sugar supply from their beet farms, leaving most of the Cuban crop for the United States.

Some people kick because the church services aren't made of a more popular character, while others want the choirs to sing in jazz instruments.

Some people who are operating high powered automobiles in the streets, would have difficulty in driving a baby carriage safely along a sidewalk.

And there won't be any great amount of weeping among the public when a coal striker has to call in a doctor on account of his hard colds.

CONSERVING TIME.

A minute of some people's time is very valuable, while they feel that half an hour belonging to the other fellow is worthless.

The above is suggested by a letter which a travelling salesman writes to an exchange. He protests against the habit of some business men, who keep a travelling man waiting around their stores for hours, when they could finish up their business with him in five to ten minutes. As salesmen's time is valuable, and their travelling expenses add to cost of goods, all this lost time has to be paid for by some one.

Some newspaper reporters complain of a similar tendency on the part of certain people. The reporter is performing a function to the highest value, the truthful recording of the community's daily history, yet some people will keep him waiting around for their convenience as if he were a loafer whose time has no value. They will sometimes do so when it would not take them five minutes to give the desired information. They seem rather to enjoy this assertion of their own superior importance. But it is only fair to say that the great majority of people are very courteous to newspaper workers, and it is only an upstart minority that ever slight them.

The world's work can be efficiently done when everyone is considerate of other people's time. The gracious and courteous man is willing to stop what he is doing for a minute to save the time of the fellow who is waiting for him. He makes friends by doing it and friends are valuable in these times. Eu the man who is so conscious of his own position and dignity that everyone must await his mood, is not one that people like much to do business with.

In Germany they spank the children that get in the streets in the way of automobiles. In this country, being too kind hearted for that, they wait until the kid gets into the hospital and then take off a leg or arm or two.

The people who are making the most fuss about losses through ignorant strikes, are about the same ones who always kicked when it was proposed to spend more on schools.

Some people here in Newark who condemn the newspapers for printing so much sultry personal gossip, are about the same ones who find fault that they are never mentioned.

No particular sympathy is manifested by the public when a United States senator has to consult a specialist on account of throat trouble.

The fact that a man can swing a very heavy, bowling alley ball does not prove that he can also swing a very light buck saw.

The fact that bulletins on the President's condition have been discontinued does not prove that the public knows much less about it than they did before.

At prices to be charged this year, the Thanksgiving turkey in the majority of homes will be a well seasoned back yard hen of ripe age and experience.

Very few of the people who are now going to overthrow the government, overthrew any German trenches during the late war.

Whether or not the senate is the greatest deliberative body in the world, as some folks say, it is evidently the longest one.

A STIFFENER FOR BACK-BONES.

(Pittsburgh Gazette-Times) When a Democratic President of the United States feels impelled to congratulate a Republican on his election as governor of a state, as President Wilson congratulated Governor Coolidge yesterday, the event takes on national significance. Before the ballot in Massachusetts had been deposited the interest of the entire country was focused upon the Old Bay State where the clear cut issue was the support of a fearless executive standing for law and order on the support of a man who, for the sake of justice, pledged himself to a policy that would immediately have been subversive of law and order, we remarked yesterday. Massachusetts has set an example for the nation. The spirit of Bolshevism, whatever the insidious form is may, assume, has received a blow between the eyes, for the result in Massachusetts was not a mere compliment to an individual for an exhibition of moral courage, but an unmistakable proof that an overwhelming majority of intelligent Americans stand in support of law and order.

The fact demonstrated by the Massachusetts election is that public opinion, though radicalism is not, and sometimes troublesome, it is in a hopeless minority. And a tonic effect of the election should be to stiffen the official backbone of every executive, national, state and municipal, in the performance of his duties when confronted by conditions resembling those suffered by Boston last summer when her policemen abandoned the city to the mercy of the lawless element.

CLASSIFICATION'S DEFEAT.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer)

Defeat of the classification amendment by Ohio voters is unfortunate. It may be attributed to a general lack of understanding the basic principle underlying the proposal. Had a sufficient number of ballots been marked on the side of the amendment this state would have made an important forward step. Instead of the people failing to approve the change at this time, it may be expected to be even a more pertinent question in the next state campaign. Its supporters are convinced that the

That Troglodites was a name given by the ancient Greeks to various tribes of uncivilized men who lived either in natural caverns or in holes which they dug for themselves? They are mentioned by Strabo as existing as far west as Mauritania and as far east as the Caucasus. They could not speak articulately, but shrieked or screamed like the lower animals. The chief occupation of the Troglodites was herding cattle, though they were also hunters and robbers.

LITTLE TALKS ON THRIFT

By S. W. STRAUSS, President American Society for Thrift.

At a recent meeting of a prominent medical association one of the principal speakers pointed out that the continued advancement of the medical profession in developing greater longevity in the human race would mean shorter working hours for everybody.

Thrift of health is one of the most splendid aspects of this sturdy virtue. No one can realize, perhaps, the tremendous losses that the human family endures as the result of the wanton neglect of the laws of hygiene, sanitation and care of the body. We deal with our health as though it were an inexhaustible reservoir. We subject ourselves to dangers of disease by allowing ourselves to become overworked, with a resulting low resistance. We think nothing of robbing ourselves of sleep, of eating food that is not good for us, of improper mastication, of allowing ourselves to worry and of subjecting ourselves to ruinous nervous strain. We may be frugal in matters of money, we may practice thrift in every other possible way, yet how many of us never think of the importance of thrift of health!

When we have learned thrift of money we make it a point never to squander a single dollar. We learn to spend every penny to the best advantage. We should apply the same principles to health. Every hour, every day, should be utilized in conserving our energies as much as possible, and the destructive processes of neglect or abuse should never be allowed to take place.

Among the writings of Benjamin Franklin we find that he attached tremendous importance to thrift of health. He considered it one of man's first duties to himself and to his associates.

Good health is a heritage more precious than gold. To preserve it to the limits of possibility is one of the finest examples of thrift.

reform is greatly needed, and they intend to keep up their fight until they win. Furthermore, with prohibition questions receiving so much attention everywhere, the election issue has been compelled to play second fiddle during the recent campaign.

Eventually Ohio will take her place with other states which have enjoyed the benefits of this equitable method of property classification for taxation. In common wealth where it has been given a fair trial, it has proved so popular that return to the old time uniform rule is not even considered. Approval of the amendment would have given the legislature the right to classify property for taxation so that the property could be taxed according to its earning power.

Unfortunately Ohio must continue handicapped in the field of taxation until a sufficient number of voters are educated to see the justice of classifying property under a twentieth century plan. In any proposed change having to do with taxation methods, the public response has usually been slow. It is not surprising, therefore, that many voters did not express opinions on the issue through their ballots on Tuesday.

The large minority vote on the proposition, however, for the future, "increasing efforts by classification advocates ought to muster an army of recruits before the next election which will assure Ohio this invaluable reform.

HONORING A FAITHFUL MAN.

(Ohio State Journal) There was great interest taken in the contest for the governorship of Massachusetts. The heart of the people was set on Governor Coolidge, who is just ending his first term. The principal reason for the great interest in Governor Coolidge's campaign was awakened by the part he had taken in the policemen's strike in Boston. He contended that the policemen were public officers, whose duties belonged to the people, and that they had no right to leave their positions and engage in a strike. On that account he was violently opposed, and the men whom he put on duty to guard the city were much demoralized. He was supported by policemen and their friends. But Governor Coolidge stood by them bravely, and so did the people, who reproved that the governor stood by his principles and so was re-elected by an increased majority.

HE SHOULD WORRY ABOUT THE COAL STRIKE, THE H. C. L. AND SUCH

I'LL SAY I WON'T DANCE

To the Editor:

Well as I said in my last letter to this paper we are moving east in the near future and now I am beginning to wonder what kind of a welcome will the easterners give me as I am not well known in the east like out around Chi and specially amidst the fair sex though

Instead of making health a matter of the last consideration, we should make it among the first. Nature is generous with most people in matters of this kind. She allows us to violate the laws of correct living, and puts off from year to year the day of account-taking. But her generosity in this respect should not be accepted as an indication that we are in any way justified in neglecting our health.

When we have learned thrift of money we make it a point never to squander a single dollar. We learn to spend every penny to the best advantage. We should apply the same principles to health. Every hour, every day, should be utilized in conserving our energies as much as possible, and the destructive processes of neglect or abuse should never be allowed to take place.

When I heard a bird say lets go somewhere and dance I figure he must either be coo-coo or booted usually the last named and it looks to me like prohibition when it gets going will prove a pretty fair Terpitude because when you ask a man that is cold sober why he likes to dance most of them is dum or else they say because its good exercise but if you ask him why he doesn't dance at stag parties when he has been to a whole lot of them and never yet seen 1 of my own sex dancing with a brother elk unless the 2 of them was to far gone to think about exercising though when you come down to cases it would be a whole lot better exercise to dance with a man as they generally always come heavier though I have had female opponents that their best friends couldn't speak of them in the same breath with Bennie Leonard.

As for a tall man being born to dance why you haven't no idea what tall means especially when talking for the fear will loose his balance and keel over and a specially since the fight at Toledo as what beat Willard that day was the height he fell from and no parachute to break it. Further more the runts and bids of mediocre height appears to glean some pleasure on the dance flr. by resting their shave vs. the opposing check but an old elm like I can't never learn what delights there may be in such cohesion without he topples over at the hip joints like a 7.

So as I say I am scared stiff that the eastern gals will rub the fur the wrong way by taking me to their bosom via la danse and if they do I only hope they won't take no offense when I tell them I won't dance as I have found that the politer term "I don't dance" hasn't no more effect than orange crush.

MINSTREL MAIDS GIVE GOOD SHOW

Audience Gives Approval to Amateur Production Presented By Newark Young Women Friday Night.

One of the cleverest amateur productions to be staged in Newark was presented by the Merry Minstrel Maids at the Auditorium theater Friday evening under the direction of Miss Lillian E. Hall.

An innovation, a minstrel show composed entirely of women, it proved a delightful success, and brought forward some splendid talent. Although the rehearsals have covered scarcely ten days the show was given without a monotonous moment, and was concluded by 10:30 o'clock.

The absence of names on the program and many guesses as to identity were advanced.

The show opened with the usual minstrel set. The chorus in black face wore white skirts and waists, white hose and black shoes, and black neckties.

The ends, wore black skirts with the satin frock coats, fashioned with fancy vests, reverses and ties of many hues. Miss Cynthia Primrose sang "Don't Make Dem Scandalous Eyes at Me," and she sang well, and danced splendidly. As a darky her dialect was good and with a professional ease she participated in the burlesque, but, giddy as catcher, Miss Primrose out of dark face is Miss Grace Dennison. Miss Giovanna Dockstader handled her quips exceptionally well, and got a big hand for her song "M'linda's Rag-Time Ball." Miss Dockstader is really Miss Louise Pier.

Miss Sylvia Pate (Mrs. Charles Friel) very cleverly sang "The Undertaker Man," and was forced to take several encores. Miss Magnolia Melba, a tall, lithe darky lady, made a big hit with her song, "I'm Goin' Goodbye." The girl, Miss Jackson's own name is Mrs. Katherine Jackson.

Possessing a splendid voice, and good stage presence, Miss Potomac Perini opened the ends work with her song number, "You're Too Good to Lose." Miss Perini has appeared in public before as Miss Irene Winters. Dinah Snowball, the jazz end, (Frances Orwig) carried her song number, "Cindy My Black Belle Do" with a zip. She was exceptionally clever as an eccentric dancer.

Miss Hall in evening dress acted as interlocutor and sang "Isles of Content." The chorus was exceptionally well balanced, possessed volume and showed the result of earnest practice. The first part concluded with "Happy Days," which was beautifully sung by Miss Bertha Dooley and chorus.

The olio opened with the darktown belles and beaux, the members appearing in evening dress in a clever song and dance number. Those taking part were: Misses Emma Fetter, Irene McMurran, Veronica Stare, Edna Street, Hazel Kelly, Marie Schaller, Thomasine Kelly, Rosemary Fetter, Josephine Yost, Elizabeth McWilliams, Marjorie Cull and Margaret Stooper.

A clever burlesque on tight rope walking was given by Miss Helen Beinhower, with Miss Helen Talbot as her assistant. All the frills with the uncertainty of rope walking were given.

Miss Hall in a gorgeous outfit of yellow and gold sang "How'd You Like to Marry Me?" and was assisted by a dancing chorus composed of Marguerite Conners, Dorothy Friel, Martha Friel, Genie Gehrke, Katherine Brown, Rosemary Fetter, Marguerite Mueller and Helen Talbot.

With the grace of professionals, and working perfectly as a team, the dance specialty by Misses Ruth and Agnes Scheller was one of the big features of the performance. The young women were forced to take encores until exhausted.

One of the most appealing acts was the cake walk by six little girls, led by tiny Helen Cox. Little Miss Cox never missed a step, and was a cunning little pickaninny baby. Owing to the fact that three of the children who were to take part being withdrawn three of them had practically only since Wednesday. They gave a splendid dance.

The rehearsals were Elizabeth Cox, Phoebe Jane Moore, Beatrice James, Elizabeth Lawyer, Susan Ross, and Elaine Rosenburg.

The show concluded with a plantation dance number in which the entire company took part.

Miss Bernice Floyd as pianist helped to make possible the splendid success of the show, and the Auditorium orchestra played during the performance.

The proceeds of the production, which was presented to a capacity house, will be given to a Christmas club fund, to be used for welfare work.

THE COURTS

Charged False Arrest.

In court, please count on Friday the court and I just heard the evidence in the case of Paul J. Albery, William Wince. Albery says that an affidavit was filed by Wince in the mayor's court, charging the theft of two automobile tires belonging to Wince. That afterwards he was fully exonerated and discharged. Albery alleges he was unlawfully imprisoned and prevented from attending to his business. Wince asks damages in the sum of $1,000. Wince says that he consulted an attorney before filing the affidavit for Albery's arrest, and acted upon the advice of counsel in good faith.

Says Wife Won't Cook.

James L. Osborne, the attorney H. C. Asher, has filed a petition in probate court in which he asks that he be divorced from Ethel M. Osborne. The petition recites that they were married on Dec. 22, 1912, and that defendant for more than three years failed to perform her marital duties toward the plaintiff in that she refused to cook his meals or attend to household duties and that she would leave the plaintiff for long periods of time and keep company with other men and frequently told him that she did not care for him. A separation took place Oct. 17 last.

"MARRIED STRANGERS" STARTS NOV. 17TH.

Frances Duvall's new story "Married Strangers" of compelling interest to men and women alike will appear in this newspaper. The Advocate has just purchased the right of publication which will begin with the issue of November 17th.

A girl, young, independent, impulsive, thrilling with life and romance of war meets a newly-made young officer and marries him after a whirlwind courtship. There is a three-day honeymoon and he sails for France. Sustained by the tonic of patriotism of flying flags and crashing bands and long olive drab columns marching away to face death on the battlefields of France, she loves him unquestionably through his two years' absence. Then he returns, a stranger. Tastes, training habits, the slow steps to understanding over which they had leaped with youthful arrogance rear ugly heads. How they solved their problems and reached the basis on which a real marriage is founded constitute the story.

"Married Strangers" is by the same author who wrote "The Adventures of a Married Flirt."

Watch for the opening chapter on Monday, November 17th. This attractive story will be presented in short installments from day to day beginning one week from next Monday.

BOY SCOUTS ALL SET FOR EVENTS

Field Day at White Athletic Field Will Show What Is Taught to Troopers.

Arrangements are all complete for the Boy Scout field day on next Tuesday, which is Armistice day. The entries are in, the judges are assigned and the scouts are awaiting until 2 p.m. Tuesday Zanesville expects to bring eight troops and the scoutmaster of troop 1 of Zanesville sends word to go ahead and engrave the loving cup with the arms of Troop 1. The engraving will not be done before sun down Tuesday.

The big prize in this field meet is the beautiful silver loving cup given by George M. Fenberg and which will be on display in the windows of the May Linford store over Sunday. The public has been invited to come to White Athletic Field at 2 p.m. Tuesday and see the competition for this cup.

Troop No. 1.
Troop 1 is working hard to keep Troop No. 1 of Zanesville and other troops from taking the loving cup away, and in answer to the Zanesville troop, say that the cup may be engraved "Troop 1," but that it will not have "Zanesville" upon it anywhere.

Troop No. 2.
Troop 2 has just secured Mr. Jenkins, an ex-service man to assist them and will be among those present at the field meet.

Troop No. 3.
Troop 3 which meets at the Hudson Avenue school house has changed its meeting night from Friday until Tuesday, meeting at 7 p.m. each Tuesday night. The new scoutmaster John Sherwood Fleek took charge of the troop on Tuesday and the boys have served notice on Newark that it is time to sit up, and watch their smoke.

Troop 7.
Troop 7 which meets at the engine house in South 7th street, started Armamentour, scoutmaster, has entered all but one of his boys in the individual contest for the field meet.

Troop 8.
The scouts of troop 8, which meets at the East Main street M. E. church have taken lesson from the squirrels and other wild animals and took a troop hike. They have filled the larder in the basement of the church with a winter supply of walnuts, hickory nuts and chestnuts. This troop is the baby troop but already is showing that they have some real scout material.

Wall Street.

New York, Nov. 8.—The week ended with moderate strength but a general reversal soon set in on news that the government would continue its injunction proceedings against the coal miners. Offerings of steel, munitions, motors and other leaders were actively resumed, lowest quotations of the week being recorded in the majority of instances.

The extent of the decline ranged from 2 to 7 points. Oil shipments and rails also reflected severe pressure. A few early gains in shipments was speedily cancelled. Final prices were at or near lowest levels. The closing was weak. Sales approximated some gains.

Stocks were held in strong at the outset, but short gains, mainly as a result of the industrial gains, recorded by Motor accessories, Central Leather, International Paper and Associated Oil. In the more popular issues, however, further selling occurred, steel and equipments being a general under mark pressure.

Rails opened with a moderate show of strength but eased within the first hour when the general list became inactive.

Chicago Grain Review.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Suspension of the railway permit system led to general selling of corn and to material breakups in prices. The opening which ranged from a quarter to 3/4 cents lower, with December $1.34@1.34 1/2 and May $1.26@1.27 1/2; was followed by something of a rally but then by declines lower than before.

Gains were relatively firm, owing to export business in that of grain and soybeans. After opening a shade to 3/8 off during December at 70 1/2@70 1/2, the market forced a moderate turn which however, was not well maintained.

Provisions gave way with corn. Higher quotations on hogs were virtually ignored.

THE WORLD'S MOST BEAUTIFUL PRODUCTION

CHU CHIN CHOW
A MUSICAL EXTRAVAGANZA OF THE ORIENT

Now in its Fourth Year at His Majesty's Theater, London. Written and Created By Oscar Asche, Music by Frederick Norton. DIRECT FROM SECOND RUN AT CENTURY THEATER, NEW YORK, WITH COMPLETE ORIGINAL PRODUCTION INTACT.

POSITIVELY NEVER BEFORE

In the history of the English-speaking stage has there been produced anything so superbly gorgeous, so brilliantly artistic, so magnificent in its staging, coloring and costumes, as this beautiful extravaganza of the Orient. BIGGEST AND MOST EXPENSIVE PRODUCTION ever sent on tour, without exception. Never before has such a colossal amusement enterprise on such artistic scale been brought to this state.

SPECIAL NOTE—To defeat speculators who follow "Chu Chin Chow" from one city to another, buying up the best seats, to be sold again to the public at outrageous prices, the management announces that POSITIVELY NOT MORE THAN SIX TICKETS WILL BE SOLD TO ANY ONE PERSON, unless proper credentials are shown to identify purchaser.

crack story and there is a reason for everything and anything is within reason.

The plot begins with the hero in prison for a major crime of which he is guilty and moves steadily forward with absorbing interest due to the fact that the element of mystery is carried along to the climax and because a logical reason is shown for each step in the story's unfolding, including the hero's reform. "A man is murdered." Anyone of the several persons might have committed the crime including the hero. Anyway, you must see "The Trembling Hour," too. It comes from a Pathé News and the big added attraction is the Miniature Song Recital given by Earle Transue. Mr. Transue is sent the lively, merry and successful farce, "She Walked in Her Sleep" at the Auditorium next Tuesday night.

The play comes from the pen of Mark Swan, who will be remembered for his big success of last season, "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath." The story of "She Walked in Her Sleep" has to do with the adventures and complications of a fair, but filmsey appalled somnambulist, who somnambulates around clad in a large picture hat and a silk night robe, on the narrow ledge of a wall of a New York apartment hotel, 16 stories above the street level. She also climbs into rooms at will, taking the portable belongings of the occupants and all the while ignoring the startled exclama-

Fine Sunday Program. The Auditorium tomorrow offers an exceptionally varied program, one full of comedy, thrill, news events and vocal numbers, for Earle Transue, the distinguished American tenor, is to remain over for a Sunday Miniature Song Recital, once in the afternoon at 3:15, and twice in the evening. The feature picture is the Universal Special "The Trembling Hour" with the following clever cast of players: Kenneth Harlan, Henry Bumowsky, Willis Marks, Claude Hopkins, Edna Sherman, Helen Estelle Jerome, Gertrude Astor, Anna May Whitham and others. "The Trembling Hour" is a mystery

a tenor of note and he is singing at the Auditorium today and tomorrow

"The Heart of Wetona." When "The Heart of Wetona," a Select Pictures production, comes to the Auditorium theater Monday and Wednesday, Norma Talmadge will be seen in the role of an Indian girl. She is presented by Joseph M. Schenck.

The Comanche Indians, despite the years of training and instruction given them by the United States, still cling to some of their ancient rites. Quannah, chief of the tribe, is making arrangements for a Corn Dance. He says that a vestal virgin must be chosen to burn sacred fire to the Holy Man at the dance. Wetona, daughter of Quannah, is chosen as the vestal virgin. Wetona's mother was a white woman and Wetona has been brought up as an American girl. She says she is not worthy of bringing food to the Holy Man—but it would be sacrifice to the Great Spirit.

Her father is suddenly awakened to the fact that his daughter is not the pure and virtuous girl he thought she was. Quannah demands to know the name of her lover. She refuses to tell him. All she will tell him is that he is a white man. The Indians decide by Quannah to seek vengeance.

"She Walked in Her Sleep."

A S. Stern & Company in association with George Broadhurst, will present the lively, merry and successful farce, "She Walked in Her Sleep" at the Auditorium next Tuesday night.

The play comes from the pen of Mark Swan, who will be remembered for his big success of last season, "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath." The story of "She Walked in Her Sleep" has to do with the adventures and complications of a fair, but filmsey appalled somnambulist, who somnambulates around clad in a large picture hat and a silk night robe, on the narrow ledge of a wall of a New York apartment hotel, 16 stories above the street level.

GRANVILLE HIGH BEATS COSHOCTON

Villagers Show Superior
In Grid Game Friday—
Win By 30 to 7 Score.

Granville, No. 8.—Displaying a superior brand of football the Granville high football team defeated Coshocton here yesterday 30 to 7 in the game of the season. The Coshocton team which is coached by Karch, an Ohio State man, could not cope with the brand of football offered by the hard fighting locals and were outplayed in all departments of the game. The line from tackle to tackle was a stone wall on defense. Coshocton resorted to the forward passing game for its gains, their touchdown was scored as the result of a long forward pass. This being the first time that the Granville goal line has been crossed this season Granville opened the scoring early in first quarter. Granville received the kick off and after an exchange of punts recovered a Coshocton fumble on the yard line. On the third play the ball was fumbled and rolled across the goal line, Mitchell recovering it for a touch down. Toward the last of the quarter Coshocton recovered a Granville fumble on the 15 yard line but they lost the ball on downs. This was their chance to score during the first half. In the second quarter Price received a short forward pass and sprinted thirty-five yards for a touch down. Coshocton came back with lots of fight in the third quarter and soon after receiving the kickoff completed a long forward pass for a touchdown. Price was easily the star of the game, his long runs and returning of punts were sensational. He played well at fullback, while Lacock played a good defensive game at end. The line-up.

Cider Lands 'Em' in Court.

Two men were in police court today one charged with consuming too much hard cider as a consequence of which he became loud and boisterous. He was fined $5 and the costs. The other was a train rider who landed in the city on a blind baggage car. He also drew $5 and costs and was sent to the county jail.

Woman Loses Purse.

A Mrs. Linville came to Newark early this morning from Utica to do some shopping but when she went into one of the stores missed her purse. It was a small black leather pocketbook and had $14 in it. She thinks it was lost on the east side of the square. She took the first car to leave at the Advocate or patrol station.

Hinger on Vacation.

Patrolman William Hinger will leave this evening on a several days vacation trip to Sandusky and expects to try his hand at landing several good sized bass in the bay tomorrow. Hinger has a record of taking one of the largest individual strings out of the mouth of the Sandusky river.

Praises Next Week's Show.

Nate Block was in Columbus yesterday and last evening attended the performance of "She Walked in Her

MACK STILL WILLING TO PLAY FOR CHARITY

Declaring that the B. and O. football team through its manager Sandy Murray, refused to play the game Sunday for charity benefit, C. E. McDaniel, owner and manager of the McDaniel team, today issued a signed statement of apology to the public for playing the game on other than a charity basis.
McDaniel's statement desires that the opposed have made that the game was played for the benefit of the Boy Scouts and the Salvation Army was refused by Murray and that the B. and
O. manager would make no other terms than a 50-50 division of the receipts.
"His (Murray's) original challenge," says McDaniel's statement, "that he would play on any terms or for charity, was accepted. After offering to play for the entire gate receipts, or for charity or as a free attraction, he refused any term, whatever, except a 50-50 division of the receipts."

"I feel that I am in every way blameless in this matter and my reason for making this statement is to show the public just who is to blame for the change of the terms as originally made.
If I had refused the terms Murray named, there would have been no game between the two teams played this season and the question of supremacy would never have been definitely settled."

"I still am ready and willing to play the game under the terms originally named in the local newspapers over my signature even at this late date if Murray sees fit to accept the original terms."

The game, as previously announced, will be played Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Moundbuilders park.

The arrangement of the game resulted from a challenge issued by the
B. and O. management several weeks ago. Many players on the B. and O.
team were members of the Mack team in years past and there has been a warm rivalry between the two organizations since the season opened. While neither team has made any city championship claims, the game Sunday will definitely settle any such claim which might have been made. Both teams have a large number of followers and the partisan feeling has been running high. With good weather for Sunday afternoon, there is every prospect of a hot contest.

A Good Appearance

A fine combination of millinery, shoes, hose, and outer apparel looks better on a good figure than on a poor one.

All women are interested in having what is called "a good appearance." Are you really doing all you can toward that end?

Do your corsets fit you or do you fit your corsets? If your corsets fit your figure, how do you know that your figure is correct in its measurements? Is it symmetrical, of artistic proportions, and graceful? Do you know that no matter what corset you wear, you gradually take its figure lines and consequently that a badly designed corset is going to give you a badly proportioned figure?

MODART CORSETS Front Laced

excel in design—that most important particular—and they are well made to carry out the design in materials that preserve the figure lines, give long life to the corset, thus making a desirable as well as economical purchase for any woman.

Our expert corsetiere will give you a trial fitting of the MODART model you require to develop your figure in accordance with health promoting comfort and correct proportions for your figure type.

OHIO FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

Red Cross Christmas Seals.

Ohio's quota of Red Cross Christmas seals to be sold this year is 50,000,000—the national goal is 650,000,000.

In many places throughout Ohio the sale of these Red Cross seals is conducted under the auspices of the Federation of Women's Clubs. The money going to these local federations as their share in the proceeds is expended toward the support of a public health nurse. The remainder of course, goes to the Ohio Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. How could this money more wisely distributed? The public health nurse is truly the modern-day municipal angel of mercy.

The state of the seals will be conducted throughout the Ohio Red Cross Christmas seal committee headquarters No. 53 South Fourth street, Columbus.

Sister-in-law, Mother of Cleveland, continues her active interest as chairman. A. W. Mackenzie will serve as treasurer, and the executive secretary as secretary of the committee. A state campaign director will be employed to take immediate charge of the field organization work.

This is the largest task ever assumed by the anti-tuberculosis forces in Ohio, but it can be accomplished with good organization in every local community in Ohio.

As a result of the enactment of the Hughes act which recognizes the official local health system of the state, plans are under consideration for the reorganization of the voluntary local anti-tuberculosis and public health leagues of the state. The general idea is to make the voluntary local health work parallel with that of the official local health system throughout the state.

That Willard Punch.

Federated club women at Willard are doing such a splendid work that it will be an incentive everywhere to tell something about it.

There are 300 federated club women in Willard. They have a teacher and paid all expenses for a kindergarten last summer. They gave $100 each year to the school children in garden contests. They are now supporting two French orphans. An extension school was secured by them through the state department of agriculture. They collected and shipped bushels of seeds to help plant devastated France. The health committee of the Willard federation secured over $150 besides monthly pledges for a public health house for the little city. The federation is planning to open a public library. A room has already been secured. The federated club women have $600 in the library fund. A series of teas to promote sociability and to secure additional funds for the library has been planned for the winter. Willard club women say they owe their success to their democratic spirit; that their rich are poor and their poor are rich, and all live in harmony together. Is there any other town in Ohio that can beat Willard?

AIRPLANE PASSENGER BURNED.

Kansas City, Nov. 8.—H. O. Euston, a passenger in an airplane, was fatally burned here when the plane fell 50 feet and was destroyed by fire. Nine planes, including the one destroyed, arrived here from Wabash, Indiana. The remaining eight will leave today for Tulsa, Oklahoma.

WRITES ARMISTICE DAY MESSAGE.

Washington, Nov. 8.—President Wilson yesterday wrote a message to the American people which will be made public on Armistice Day, Nov. 11.

Mrs. J. W. Adams was called to Covington, Ky., today by the serious illness of her daughter.

The wheat crop in Ohio is estimated at 26,000,000 bushels.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY.

(From Advocate, Nov. 8, 1904.) A Zanesville paper announces that sleeping car service will soon be established between Zanesville and Indianapolis through Newark on the trolley line.

Miss Leona Patterson and Mr. Harry W. Rubloff of Chicago were united in marriage at the Second Presbyterian church Monday evening.

J. S. Orr of Bowling Green township has raised an ear of corn which measures one foot in length.

BOWLING

The Pastime Bowling team journeyed to Coshocton Wednesday evening and took the Novelty City boys over to the tune of 195 pins total in three games.

The games were rolled on the new Park View alleys and the boys report the alleys to be fine, but the pins are much overweight, one man remarking they weighed from eight to ten pounds apiece. However, this should not keep the local boys from making the "five" pin.

Following are the scores:

Newark—	Schenk	172	168	186
	Brook	167	219	158

MEYER-LINDORF COMPANY

An X-Ray View Showing the Revolutionary Inventions in THE CHENEY

1. REPRODUCER with a diaphragm unusually sensitive which separates and focuses sound waves. "Blast" and needle scratch are eliminated.

2. TONE ARM, Cheney tone are reflected perfectly from flat surfaces and kept in perfect balance.

3. ACOUSTIC THROAT where tones are gathered and controlled as in a human throat.

4. ORCHESTRAL CHAMBERS which amplify the tones without distortion and add sweetness.

5. VIOLIN RESONATOR carved from violin wood, which adds richness to tones.</
